

Executive Summary

This deliverable presents and describes the project's toolbox, which will be used to support the internal communications during the euPOLIS project. The report presents the project's content management system (CMS), which will host everything relevant to the project, including templates, deliverables, minutes, contact lists, administrative documents, and documents relevant to dissemination actions. Finally, a short description is provided for the proposed toolkits for establishing communication among partners.